

Blood Borne Pathogen Training Quiz

Name: _____ Date: _____

- 1 - Which of the following are potentially infectious body fluid sources _____
- A – Blood
 - B – Saliva
 - C – Vomit
 - D – All of the above
- 2 - Blood borne pathogens are microorganisms that _____
- A – do not cause disease.
 - B – travel by respiratory droplets and cause diseases.
 - C – coexist in our body with natural bacteria.
 - D - travel in the blood and can cause diseases.
- 3 - Symptoms of Hepatitis B will occur _____
- A – 1-9 months after exposure
 - B – immediately after exposure
 - C – never, it is not an active infection
 - D – none of the above
- 4 - Incidents that may expose you to blood borne pathogens include _____
- A – giving CPR
 - B – cleaning up urine or vomit
 - C – handling of waste products
 - D – all of the above
- 5 - Personal Protective Equipment rules to remember include all of the following EXCEPT _____
- A - Always check PPE for defects or tears before using
 - B - If PPE becomes torn or defective remove and get new
 - C - Remove PPE before leaving a contaminated area
 - D – It is okay to reuse disposable equipment

- 6 - Regulated medical waste that goes into a red biohazard container _____ includes all of the following EXCEPT _____
- A - Liquid or semi-liquid blood or other potentially infectious material (OPIM)
 - B - Contaminated items that would release blood or OPIM when compressed
 - C - Contaminated sharps
 - D - Paper towels or medical gauze with light blood stains
- 7 - After an exposure you should _____
- A - wash your hands with rubbing alcohol
 - B - wash your hands with soap and water
 - C - cover the contaminated area with a dressing or towel
 - D - none of the above
- 8 - Hepatitis B vaccines are _____
- A - recommended but not paid for
 - B - recommended and paid for by the college at no cost to the employee
 - C - not recommended
 - D - none of the above
- 9 - Post-exposure evaluations take place at _____
- A - Concentra or a local ER
 - B - your own private doctor
 - C - not needed
 - D - a private OSHA facility
- 10 - Biohazard labels should be on _____
- A - containers of regulated biohazard waste
 - B - refrigerators or freezers containing blood or OPIM
 - C - containers used to store, transport, or ship blood or OPIM
 - D - all of the above

Note: Competencies less than 70% will be asked to review the presentation and retake the quiz.